ACCS/Info Bulletin 25/21

Re: Conclusion of the Redeployment Process in Dublin City and County.

The Directors of Redeployment have provided the following update for schools regarding the conclusion of the 2021 redeployment process for post-primary schools in Dublin city and county.

The Directors of Redeployment have concluded the 2021 redeployment process at post-primary level in Dublin city and county. ETBs and post-primary schools can now proceed to fill remaining vacancies in Dublin for teaching posts in the normal manner provided such vacancies were already reported to the Directors of Redeployment in accordance with the terms of the Redeployment Scheme.

It is important to note that advertisements for posts must continue to state that they are subject to the post not being required for the redeployment process. This is to cover the potential that a post may still be required to deal with any unforeseen surplus issues that arise at a later stage. The potential for this to arise is low and if it does the Department will contact the relevant school(s) directly.

The redeployment process for all other counties is still ongoing. The Department will be in contact when this process has been completed.

ACCS will continue to advise schools on the progress of the redeployment process as it becomes available.

Is mise,
Le mór mheas,

John Irwin,
GENERAL SECRETARY.
